HO.The 5 Biggest Changes In IDS Insurance Coverage In response to ACA, many personal insurance policies have been altered and new ones have been created. Like any other legislation passed, this has caused some policy holders to feel frustrated. While many of the changes have been good for the consumer, this blog will highlight what has happened to each individual aspect of insurance. Health Maintenance Organizations Not only have HMO's been created, but many of the existing HMO's have altered their business models. Focusing on the consumer, what changes have been made? The prices for services provided by the physicians and hospitals. Some HMO's have chosen to cap the amount of services that doctors and hospitals can provide per month. Fees for drugs and other items have also increased.

Behavioral Health. There has been an increase in coverage for those with mental health needs, including psychotherapy and substance abuse treatment. Other types of coverage have decreased, such as HIV testings. No one is saying that this is fair. However, it does represent the new reality that we live in. Do you understand how your insurance is changing?#!/usr/bin/env python
