

SlideMate Free Download is a utility app designed to draw on the computer screen, allowing users to mark on document, or use the mouse to draw freely on a selected area. This app is focused on creative uses such as presentations, printed documents, online web pages, studies, reports, products' displays and much more. With this simple to use app, you can draw on all surfaces of the screen, add text, shapes, images and even paint. This app can be used with any PC or Mac running the Windows operating system, without any need for installation. Please visit the official website at [www.SlideMate Product Keyapp.com](http://www.SlideMate Product Keyapp.com) for more information. Fluid is an easy to use application which is designed to create and manage animated scenes. The interface and appearance are very much like those of Adobe Flash. Once installed and opened, the application creates its own desktop icon which gives access to the program's interface. The program has a very clean and quite simple interface, and it may take some time to get used to, due to some aspects which are a bit unexpected. From the main window, you may easily create and modify scenes and animations, by using the different menus of the interface. In order to add elements to the scene, you must click on the menu (the panel) containing the elements. Alternatively, you may drag the element to the scene, while holding it with the left mouse button. Some types of elements can be added in more than one frame, so they can be animated one after the other. This way, you can create animations and effects for presentations, websites, videos, etc. After creating the scene, the program provides several options to further customize the look. You may edit the frame rate, the duration and the speed of the animation. There are several frame formats available, and the program can export scenes in BMP, JPG and GIF format. Users of this app will need to buy additional third party plugins in order to use watermarks, interactive buttons and so on. If you are looking for a program which creates and manages animated scenes, Fluids may be the right choice for you. This app is compatible with Windows XP, Vista and 7, and it may not be suitable for some older PCs or slower PCs. Fluid Description: Fluid is a professional application designed to create and manage animated scenes for websites, videos, presentations and so on. The interface and appearance are very much like those of Flash.

0 downloads 0.0 0 people Recently I needed to produce a graph, a chart, and some other things. Since I needed them fast, I was wondering if it was possible to create them quickly with simple tools. This software looked like the right answer, so I decided to give it a try. I have to confess that I usually use Excel for all my needs. It works fine for me, but since I needed some options, I started to look for alternatives. You should know that the apps I have tried include MS Paint, Paint Shop Pro, CorelDraw, CorelDRAW X3, CorelDraw X5, and (of course) Excel. But I also went to the programs I thought could be very useful and, apparently, the most-used apps in the field of Excel and charts. With a single click of the mouse and some clicks of the keyboard, I was able to draw the following figures: - Simple chart-Graphs. Very easy and fast to create. The user interface is very simple and intuitive. I had no problems creating everything I needed. The only problem that I had was trying to complete a long table with a lot of columns. - Flowchart. #### What's New in the SlideMate?

SlideMate is a small tool for annotating with color and/or lines on any surface of the screen. At first, the application places an icon in the system tray, where it will sit until you invoke it by pressing any of the F11, F12 or middle mouse buttons. When run, the app will display all of the active surfaces on your desktop, as well as a close button which will return you to the desktop when clicked. Clicking the window's left button will activate the paintbrush or airbrush, whose settings are accessible through the slider control on the bottom right of the window. The program also offers a full selection of standard colors. Anyone can pick up a ballpoint pen and a piece of paper to work on any drawing produced by SlideMate. When you are finished, just place the pen or mark the paper by clicking the window's left button, and click the circular "X" located on the top left corner. SlideMate Key Features: - The main window is visible from the beginning, so that no extra clicks will be required to access various functions. - You may change the size of the window by dragging the slider located on the bottom right corner. - During operation, the main window, pen and paper icons will display in the corner of the system tray. - You will never need to accidentally close the window, since the app will hide itself from view once it is dismissed. - The app will
