I am currently making a 100% copy of the City of Beginnings from the anime adaptation of Sword Art Online. Sword Art Online (hereinafter referred to as SAO) is . What I know is that at the beginning of the game the player has no weapons. He is armed with only two knives, which, when connected, give a halberd, and with the help of it - a weapon. In the anime version of SAO, the player has two weapons to choose from. The first is a single-blade halberd. The second type is a halberd with two blades. There is also a third type, which allows the player to attack himself and use it as a weapon. Unfortunately, I can't tell you exactly what kind of weapons were in my game.
