FIFA 22 introduces “HyperMotion Technology,” which combines motion capture data from real-life player movements with the game engine’s AI.

This is the first-ever sports game to include this technology, which enables the highest level of player reactions and natural animations in the world’s most popular sports franchise. Players will now receive feedback from the goalkeeper when they attack their own goal and, for the first time, the team’s coach will tell you when he believes you are about to score. Reaction to the opposition will vary from a clapped hand to a punch. An all-new direction MATCH IMPACT now takes your performance and your emotional response to the game into account, and displays your capabilities and style of play to an even more precise level. You will be ranked differently in the official FIFA and Pro Clubs Leagues, and you will receive feedback on your form from your coaches. You will get to try out all 23 official balls, and when you are at the training grounds, you will have the choice to tailor your playing style with pre-set kits and even run out in the stadium in full kit with your team. In FIFA 22, you will be able to create your own team from the over 30 active leagues in the official FIFA and Pro Clubs Leagues. You will be able to customise your in-game look with more than 200 kits and more than 500 colours for your players. You will be able to strengthen your team with all-new formations like the 3-5-2 formation. Leagues and Clubs will include The World Soccer Cup - which will be presented for the first time in FIFA history, allowing you to compete for the World Cup, and The World Cup will feature a coaching system where the team's style will be defined by the selected formation. Player Career mode's key feature is the introduction of "Director Mode," where you can set up your own training sessions, play your own training sessions, and compete in training sessions against up to five other players from the official FIFA and Pro Clubs Leagues. The Director Mode will enable you to develop your own player from scratch, create your own squad, and perform training sessions in a variety of ways - whether it be in the gym, on the pitch or in the locker room. You will have your own stadium to play in, with a flood of

What's new in Fifa 22:

- Your pre-game preparation is essential. The team speed and intensity settings allow you to fine tune the pace of the matches to ensure your players have the physical capabilities and movement patterns required to perform on the pitch.
- Visual fidelity and performance improvements have been made throughout the pitch as well as inside stadiums.
- New 'Showball' camera system shows fans exactly how a free kick is taken or a header is headed.
- The "Blow Box" feature allows you to score from a free kick or penalty taken without a chip, perfect for the seachange with a fast and unique-looking free kick. Shoot by yourself, or have a friend take the shot for you, and while they finish the final touch, you control where the ball will go. Shoot by yourself, or have a friend take the shot for you, and while they finish the final touch, you control where the ball will go.
- A new Scoreboard & Goal Kiss animations take players and fans closer to the action.
- Be a hero on the biggest stage. Set as the fifth-most decorated player in the NFL, Peyton Manning performs quarterback moves accurately for the first time in the franchise.
- Fan Shots are a new way to experience the football world. Imagine your favorite player or player's highlight hitting the virtual space bar and automatically becoming the hero for each shot.
- Whether you're at home or on the move, FIFA Mobile, with its ultra-customizable layouts, is a great mobile companion. And it's built on the new 'Ultimate Team' engine, delivering unlimited potential and flexibility in how to build your squad. And don't worry, the real-life 3D motion captured gameplay and new players will get you in the game just as long as you own FIFA Ultimate Team on console.
