The contract will help further MEA's goal of enhancing the reliability and safety of the region's transportation infrastructure. The contract will provide the capability to support improved monitoring and reporting of existing bridge conditions, as well as providing technology to assist with bridge management and maintenance. The goal is to better understand and reduce operational and financial risks of the more than 500 bridges and overpasses that contribute to the mobility and quality of life for the Houston region's 3.2 million residents.
